

The Super Rough Guide to Turret Peak

Very much in progress

May 2015

Access: Check with the MCSA.

Approach: Good luck. Until guide updated email me on rjhalsey@gmail.com

Season: Not sure, still working that out

Sleeping: There is a neat little cave between the Spires and the Turret. Can sleep 4-5 comfortably. More if you are cosy. Good camping spots in between the boulders.

Water: Some good spots on the stream running between the boulders and The Chambers. Stream heading SE from Spires has some large pools that should have water longer the stream in the boulder area.

Bouldering

Hypermagical boulder - the boulder with the obvious diagonal line that you see from the cave.

"Kelly's line 5C"

Straight up from grass tuft.

"Hypermagical Ultraomnipotence", 6C - the diagonal line

Bed boulder – no pic yet

"Senile Delinquency", 6A - the overhanging face with the pockets above Tinie's bed.

"Tinie's problem", grade 5C+? just right of "Infantile Geriatrics".

Yes these descriptions suck.
